Let us worship together

God the creator, God the sustainer, God the redeemer.

PRAYER

Triune God,

shepherd of your people Israel,

you provide for us far more than we expect or imagine possible.

Calm our fears;

speaking peace to us;

lead us beyond ourselves.

to glorify you for your mighty deeds.

SONG: Praise the Lord with the sound of trumpet (CP 309)

Mandy Maher

Praise the Lord with the sounds of trumpet,

Praise the Lord with harp and lute,

Praise the Lord with gentle-sounding flute.

Praise the Lord in the field and forest,

Praise the Lord in the city square,

Praise the Lord anytime and anywhere.

Praise the Lord in the wind and sunshine,

Praise the Lord in the rain and snow or in the morning light.

Praise the Lord in the deepest valley,

Praise the Lord in the highest hill,

Praise the Lord; never let your voice be still.

Praise the Lord with crashing cymbals,
Praise the Lord with the pipe and string,
Praise the Lord with joyful songs you sing.
Praise the Lord on weekdays morning,
Praise the Lord on Sunday noon,
Praise the Lord by the light of sun and moon.
Praise the Lord in time of sorrow,
Praise the Lord in time of joy,
Praise the Lord in every moment; nothing let your praise destroy.
Praise the Lord in peace and quiet, praise the Lord in your work or play'
Praise the Lord everywhere in every way.

COLLECT

Canon Len Fraser

O God,
the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy,
increase and multiply upon us your mercy,
that with you as our ruler and guide,
we may so pass through things temporal,
that we lose not the things eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

A READING FROM THE SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

Lynn Snook

In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem. It happened, late one afternoon, when David rose from his couch and was walking about on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful. David sent someone to inquire about the woman. It was reported, "This is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite." So David sent messengers to get her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself after her period.)

Then she returned to her house. The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, "I am pregnant." So David sent word to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David. When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the people fared, and how the war was going. Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." Uriah went out of the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king. But Uriah slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. When they told David, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "You have just come from a journey. Why did you not go down to your house?" Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah remain in booths; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do such a thing." Then David said to Uriah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day. On the next day, David invited him to eat and drink in his presence and made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house. In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. In the letter he wrote, "Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, so that he may be struck down and die." (2 SAMUEL 11:1-15)

PSALM 14

Mandy Maher & Jon Buckle

Fools say in their hearts, "There is no God."

They are perverted, act abominably; none behaves aright.

The Holy One looks down from heaven, to see if anyone acts wisely or looks for God.

Everyone has turned aside, become altogether corrupt.
None behaves well, no, not one! R

Do they not understand, all those evildoers, who eat up my people as if they were bread,
who do not pray to the Holy One!?

See how they shake with fear because God is with those who do right.

They want to shame the counsel of the poor,
but the Holy One is their refuge.

Would that Israel's deliverance could come from Zion!

When the Holy One restores the fortunes of the chosen people, Jacob shall be glad, and Israel rejoice! R

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS      Jon Buckle

I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen. (EPHESIANS 3:14-21)

GRADUAL: Breathe on me Breath of God (CP 649)
Breathe on me, breath of God; fill me with life anew,

Mandy Maher

That I may love that thou dost love, and do thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, breath of God, until my heart is pure,
Until my will is one with thine to do and to endure.

Breathe on me, breathe of God, till I am wholly thine,
Until this earthly part of me glows with thy fire divine.

Breathe on me, breath of God: so I shall never die,
But live with thee the perfect life of thine eternity.

GOSPEL

Canon Len Fraser

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going. (JOHN 6:1-21)

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Melissa Green

God of grace,
accept all we offer you this day,
as we look toward the glory you have promised.
This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Melissa Green

Hear, O Israel
Hear, O Israel,
the Lord our God, the Lord is one.
Love the Lord your God
with all your heart,
with all your soul,
with all your mind,
and with all your strength.
This is the first and the great commandment.

The second is like it:
Love your neighbour as yourself.
There is no commandment greater than these.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Melissa Green

O Lord, have mercy upon us;
O Christ, have mercy upon us;
O Spirit, have mercy upon us,
and grant us your peace.

We pray for those who have no peace:
for children, women, and men whose homes have been destroyed by war; whose minds have been damaged by what they have seen or felt or done;
who are hungry or thirsty or ill because they are refugees or poor or underpaid or trapped in human trafficking.

We pray for those whom you have called to be peacemakers:
leaders of governments and businesses and nongovernmental organizations; leaders of the church and scholars and scientists and educators; community organizers and citizens and everyone of sound mind and body who can bear the burdens of the weak.

Give us strength and courage and faith to trust Jesus Christ and to be Christlike for the good of the creation you are redeeming and to the glory of the One who redeems all, who, with you and the Holy Spirit, we worship
now and forever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Mandy Maher

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray:
Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

ST PAUL'S CATHEDRAL - 360 NICOLA STREET, KAMLOOPS

WALKING EACH OTHER HOME

There has been a lot on our minds and hearts in recent months and weeks: the experience of Covid and recent reopenings; the news of children's remains located in unmarked graves on former residential school properties; the resignation of the Bishop of the Territory of the People; and the wildfires.

You are invited to come to a 'debriefing session' at St Paul's parish hall, to participate in large and small group conversation, facilitated by Jon Buckle, David Lidster and Barb Liotskos.

The purpose is to provide an opportunity for people to share together how they are thinking and feeling about our present situation.

"We're all just walking each other home."
